

We keep track of your RTIs and save you the daily hassle of extra administration.

Then you can focus on your core business.

CC Balance Service

We keep track of your RTI balances

We follow your RTIs'* every move – every day

With CC Balance Service you can let us take care of the administrative tasks of daily monitoring all transactions of your RTIs via our logistic system: CC LogLink. You won't have to worry about anything else than your core business.

Daily updates ensure quick reaction

All transactions between you and your business partners are updated throughout the day. If imbalances occur (e.g. if the exporter is in lack of empty RTIs to give in return for filled ones) the parties will be informed right away and get the chance to settle the discrepancy. Otherwise, we can deliver the lacking RTIs to the supplier and send a hire contract to the exporter. This saves you the time and hassle of extra administration or discussions with your business partners, and you won't be short of RTIs due to imbalances.

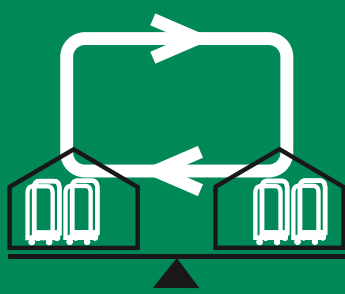

You pay per RTI rotation

For this service you pay a modest balance control fee. We inform you straight away if your RTI usage is outside the defined availability bandwidth, and with Short-Term Hire you get the possibility to hire more RTIs straight away.

CC Balance Service

We keep track of your RTI balances

What you get with this service:

- 1 CC Balance Service builds on our logistic system: CC LogLink. That's why CC LogLink is mandatory when selecting CC Balance Service.
- 2 CC LogLink is an internet based system where all RTI transactions* are registered. You and your business partners can always log-on and get an overview of your RTI flow and balances.
- 3 With CC Balance Service, we keep track of your RTIs. We perform the administrative task of monitoring all your RTI transactions.
- 4 We check your balances every day. All transactions are updated throughout the day in CC LogLink.
- 5 No hassle, if imbalances occur. If imbalances are not settled quickly, Container Centralen can deliver the lacking RTIs to keep everything on track and schedule.
- 6 We advise you about your optimum RTI contract. We advise you on hiring the exact amount of RTIs needed to ensure you full availability for your core activities – no more and no less. Short-Term Hire covers your needs in peak seasons, so you won't have to tie up capital beyond your main needs.
